

JAGIELLONIAN UNIVERSITY
IN KRAKÓW

INFORMATION ON THE COMPETITION

DEAN OF THE FACULTY OF INTERNATIONAL AND POLITICAL STUDIES

Address ul. Gołębia 24, 31-007 Kraków

Phone no.: +48 12 4220225

Kraków, 30th of April 2019

RECTOR of the Jagiellonian University announces competition for the post of ADJUNCT PROFESSOR

in the Institute of European Studies at the Faculty of International and Political Studies within the scope of research project Horizon 2020 „EU3D. EU Differentiation, Dominance and Democracy”

For the post of adjunct professor may apply persons who fulfil requirements stated in Article 113, 116 (2) (3) of the Act of 20th July 2018 Law on higher education and science, as well as in § 163 of the Statute of the Jagiellonian University, who meet the following qualification requirements:

- hold at least the academic degree of doctor in one of the relevant academic fields: political science, comparative studies, IR, political sociology, European studies,
- their doctoral or habilitation thesis was given high grades,
- relevant academic achievements involving apart from doctoral thesis also other important works,
- active participation in academic life involving particularly presentations at conferences and symposiums,
- English language proficiency is required. If you are not a native English speaker, or if the language of instruction at your previous university was not English, we will ask you to provide evidence of strong English language skills. Please include English language test results in your application if this applies to you. English language tests should not be more than two years old at the time of application (at least C1 or equivalent),
- Additional EU official languages are desired but not necessary,
- Previous experience and publications in the research areas of the EU3D project would be an advantage,
- Previous experience in EU-funded project is an asset,
- Experience with international collaborative research projects would be an advantage.

Job description: The Institute for European Studies of the Jagiellonian University in Kraków invites applications for a Postdoc position on ‘Future of Europe proposals’ as part of the Horizon 2020 research Project “EU Differentiation, Dominance, Democracy”. Applicants should hold a PhD in political science, sociology or a related social science discipline. The research project “EU3D. EU Differentiation, Dominance and Democracy” (#EU3D) gathers 10 partner academic institutions and think tanks (ARENA, Oslo University; Breugel Belgium; ELIAMEP Greece; Comenius University in Bratislava; Jagiellonian University Kraków, LUISS School of Governance Rome; Science Po Grenoble; University of Copenhagen; University of Konstanz and Oxford University). It will study the future of political integration in Europe. Its main objective is to develop and apply to the EU and beyond a theory of differentiation that specifies the conditions under which differentiation is politically acceptable, institutionally sustainable and democratically legitimate, and the conditions under which it is not. An offered position will be within research task on ‘Future of Europe proposals’ that will create a database of future of EU reform proposals and undertake a comprehensive and systematic assessment of these in line with the analytical framework. The employed scholar will contribute to building the dataset as well as undertake an in-depth analysis of gathered proposals, prepare reports and scientific publications of the highest standard.

Responsibilities:

- Scientific and desk research on the subject of the future of EU reforms proposals;
- Preparing publications: academic articles, editing special issues/edited volumes;
- Contribution to project coordination and management;
- Communication with local and international stakeholders;
- Planning and realizing various research initiatives (database building, interviews, transcripts; reporting etc.);

- Organising events.

Length of contract and % of full-time: The position is full time and announced for a period of 3 years without teaching obligations.

Candidates who apply for the post are required to file in the office of the Center of European Studies, the Jagiellonian University; 31-131 Kraków, ul. Garbarska 7a, room 2, the following documents:

1. A one-page letter of motivation.
2. Curriculum vitae with full summary of education, practice, academic and non-academic work experience, language proficiency, positions of trust, and other qualifying/extra-curricular activities,
3. Personal questionnaire,
4. Copy of doctoral diploma or habilitation diploma,
5. If applicable - list of publications (including publishing house and number of pages),
6. Two samples of academic writing,
7. Two letters of recommendation,
8. Form of the latest interim evaluation, if a candidate was evaluated,
9. Statement declaring that Jagiellonian University will be the basic place of employment in the case of being employed in the competition procedure.
10. Statement – in accordance with Article 113 of the Act Law on higher education and science.
11. Statement regarding acquaintance and acceptance of intellectual property rules as well as legal protection of intellectual property.
12. Information regarding personal data processing.

The application and all supporting documents must be provided in English (or translated into English) and should also be sent in electronic version to e-mail address: eu3d@uj.edu.pl.

For further information regarding this competition please contact
Dr Magdalena Góra, Local project coordinator
Institute of European Studies, Jagiellonian University in Krakow
E-mail: mm.gora@uj.edu.pl

Prof. Zdzisław Mach, Leader of the research team
Institute of European Studies, Jagiellonian University in Krakow
E-mail: zdzislaw.mach@uj.edu.pl

Competition commencement date: 30th of April 2019

Applications can be filed till: 31st of May 2019

Decision regarding competition settlement shall be made till 30th of June 2019.

Jagiellonian University does not provide housing.

Statement forms can be downloaded on the website:

<http://www.dso.uj.edu.pl/druki-do-pobrania/dokumenty-dla-kandydatow-pracownikow>

On the basis of authorisation of the Rector of the Jagiellonian University

Dean of the Faculty of International and Political Studies
Prof. Zdzisław Mach