

WHY KRAKÓW

Choosing Kraków means studying Europe from a unique Central and Eastern perspective, where history, culture and contemporary geo-politics intersect.

At the Jagiellonian University, one of Europe's oldest and most prestigious institutions, students benefit from an interdisciplinary, student-centred approach.

Kraków's vibrant cultural life and international atmosphere create an inspiring environment to explore European diversity while gaining skills for careers in culture, policy-making, research and beyond.

GET IN TOUCH

Phone Number
(+48) 12 663 29 88

Email Address
euroculture@uj.edu.pl

Webpage
www.euroculture.wsmip.uj.edu.pl

UNDERSTAND EUROPE

STUDY EUROculture IN KRAKÓW

A Joint Master Programme of Excellence in European Studies offered by top-rated universities

ABOUT THE PROGRAMME

Euroculture is a two-year Erasmus Mundus Joint Master's in European Studies, bringing together leading universities across Europe. It offers an interdisciplinary approach combining politics, society and culture to understand Europe in a global context.

Students study in at least two countries and graduate with a joint or double degree, gaining both academic depth and international experience.

”
EUROPE IS NOT JUST A PLACE,
BUT AN IDEA SHAPED BY ITS DIVERSITY
— ”

HOW TO APPLY

OUR PROGRAMME STRUCTURE

Explore Europe through interdisciplinary courses combining politics, culture, history, and society.

01

Core Courses

Build a strong foundation in European politics, identity forming processes, and diversity management.

02

Thematic Specialisation

Choose thematic pathways aligned with your academic and career interests.

03

Mobility Experience

Study at partner universities across Europe and gain diverse perspectives.

04

Research Track / Internship

Develop practical experience through research or professional placement.

05

Master Thesis

Conduct independent research under joint supervision on key European issues.